DEACON WILLIAM TILLEY

1738-1825

The following from the Newport Mercury issue of 20 Feb. 1825, pays a fitting tribute to his memory:

"Died on Sunday last, Deacon William Tilley, age 87 years. If 60 years of a conscientious discharge of religious and moral duties, joined to the endearing and affectionate domestic ties of husband, father, son, brother and friends, shall claim from our all wise and beneficent Creator, reward and mercy, he now enjoys all the heavenly felicity promised by the Gospel of Christ. His life was one of piety and usefulness, and to the last moments of his life, his faith and confidence was unshaken in Christ, the Son of God. He left a numerous progeny as well as many friends to mourn his departure, including 10 children, 79 grandchildren and 44 great-grandchildren.)

LEWIS LATHAM
Falconer to King Charles I.
Born 1555 - Died 1655, May 15.

His descendants in America number many thousands, through his daughter Frances, by two of her four husbands (viz: William Dungan and Jeremiah Clarke). She had 11 children and 82 grand-children. She was born in 1611 - died 1677, Sept. Buried in Newport Cemetery, R.I.

The inscription on the above likeness reads:

"The Effigy of the Honourable Lewis Latham, Falconer to His Majesty, King Charles I., who died at Age of one Hundred Years." (see line 11 Section XI.)

Above is a photostatic copy of the Frontispiece in "Ancestral Dictionary" by James Osborne Austin (R.I.) to be found in most genealogical libraries.
